

TRATTORIA LISINA

“Le stelle di notte sono grandi e luminose nel cuore profondo del Texas.”

Cari Amici,

Let us introduce you to the way of eating in the Italian manner. A meal usually consists of four courses, although we have been involved in feasts in Italy that easily bested this number..

The Antipasto or appetizer (anti-before; pasto-meal) is a small taste of salumi (cured meats)and/or marinated vegetables, olives and seafood eaten to get the gastronomic juices flowing.

The Primo, or first course, is usually pasta, risotto or soup. The Secondo or second course, consists of fish, meat, poultry or game. Eaten along with the Secondo, one usually orders a Contorno or side dish of a vegetable or salad.

Dolci and espresso are normally taken at a Caffé or Gelateria after a passeggiata (stroll) to the nearest piazza (town square). Since there is no Caffé or Gelateria in Driftwood, we invite you to enjoy our delicious coffee and dessert here at Lisina.

By this time, we bet you are wondering where Pizze fits in to the lineup. Even though Pizze is a category by itself and not really a part of the traditional succession of courses in a classic Italian meal, you can share a pizza as an appetizer or you can have a whole pizza for yourself as an entree. Heck, we've had pizza for breakfast!

Benvenuti e Buon Appetito! ~Trina & Damian Mandola
